From the Editor's Desk

Welcome to the June 2015 edition of First Day Coverage. Before we go any further, we would like to apologise for the late arrival of your June newsletter. It was caused by ill-health and pressure of work. However, we hope you find this edition an enjoyable read and well worth waiting for.

Well Europhilex is well and truly over and what a success! For the show organizers it was; and for Royal Mail, undoubtedly; for collectors & dealers/producers (who could get to the show), undoubtedly. Although many dealers and cover producers found their allocation of Europhilex numbered sheets was not nearly enough to satisfy their valued customer orders, me as well. I had to look round for someone who had far more sheets than me in order to buy in at well over their original price because I didn't want to disappoint my customers. I was happy to get them to be honest and I would be letting a lot of my customers down had I not been able to obtain them. I am thankful to the dealer who sold them to me but I shouldn't have had to go to such lengths. My order to Royal Mail was not an onerous one but I was still only allocated a third of what I required. This notwithstanding, I think Royal Mail did a wonderful job under very difficult circumstances. I fully

Important Notice

DEADLINE FOR THE AUGUST 2015 EDITION Items for publication MUST be with the editor by 7th July 2015

Thank you to everyone who has sent in material for publication. If you haven't seen your article in this newsletter, please be assured that we will use it in a future edition. We require more articles and features so that we have them in have for forthcoming newsletters understand why Royal Mail wanted the 7,500 sheets to be sold only to show visitors but it should have realised trade and collectors especially those who couldn't attend the show, would want them. Too few were printed really. Lessons will have been learnt for next time, yes, I am afraid there may be more of this kind of thing in order to help boost attendance to future Stampex shows. But I will leave that for others to worry about.

I attended on the 13th May, the first day of the show. It was a ticket only day but more of the Europhilex Overprinted Penny Black numbered sheets was on sale. I only stayed between 10am and 12midday as I had Dot with me and she really wasn't up to the journey but she came along to get her 3 sheets to help me out.

We have a report on Europhilex by lan Billings, and an article about rare FDCs Chris Sutcliffe managed to do with his three sheets. Both are good reads. Ian does highlight some of the drawbacks of the show but I think Royal Mail already know the things they could have done better, and they will be making changes.

We want to hear your views on the Europhilex Show. Did you attend? What did you think of it? Did you manage to get your 3 precious sheets? If you couldn't get to the show, how do you feel about not having a chance to acquire even one sheet for your collection? We want to hear from you. Write in with your views and experiences. If you managed to get hold of some rare covers using your Europhilex sheet then let us know about it.

Send in a scan or good colour photocopy of your cover(s). We will be very happy to receive all your letters and articles

Now to inside this edition, we have the Battle of Waterloo GBFDC Association official cover for your information on page 3. It is the last in the series of three covers for 2015. The next official cover will be for the GBFDC AGM2015 and will be for Bees.

We have a Europhilex Report and Europhilex Article on pages 15 & 17. Both are well worth a read.

There is a very full MCS for you this issue as well as a few good letters to the editor.

Nigel McGarry continues with his excellent series, "Let's Connect" on pages 4 & 5. And Bill Norburn asks for members' help in identifying a cover signature.

If you have sent in something for the newsletter, and you haven't seen it published yet, please be assured that we are holding it in hand for the next edition. We like to have material in hand for forthcoming newsletters so, if you have interesting items in your collection then please think about putting an article together for your newsletter, or send in a letter for publication.

Please send in ALL your Europhilex letters (or other letters, of course) and articles for the August Newsletter and we will publish them.

We have been promised a blistering heat wave starting this week but no sign of here in the North West! We are freezing cold up here. We normally have the fire off from mid April but it's still on at the beginning of June. We hope the weather improves where you are, if it has not already done so. On that note we will see you again in August. Until then, Happy Collecting.

Let's Connect.....by Nigel McGarry

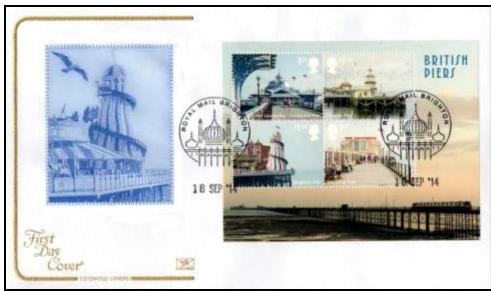

In 1971 three stamps were issued to commemorate giants of British literary history in the shape of John Keats, Thomas Gray and Sir Walter Scott. I have seen Edinburgh FDI handstamp connecting the birthplace of Scott but have also found an excellent FDI handstamp from Cambridge. Thomas Gray attended Peterhouse College and died in Cambridge during 1771 aged 54 - the Philart

My personal preference for special handstamps and permanent philatelic postmarks means I can sometimes produce a quite collectable item without running the risks associated with producing CDS or slogan postmark covers.

A couple of my more recent connections are shown below. The first is the Grimsby permanent postmark applied to the sustainable fish issue from 2014 on an attractive Cotswold cover - Grimsby has always been associated with the UK fishing industry.

Also shown (opposite) are two of the covers I produced for the 2014 Seaside Architecture and Piers issue cancelled with the Brighton permanent postmark. To commemorate the world's longest pleasure pier,

I also had similar covers cancelled by the Southend on Sea permanent postmark.

HELP WITH SIGNATURE PLEASE

Below is a scan of a Stamp Publicity card with the London Union of Youth Clubs Salutes London Sportsmen Handstamp.

The same card was used for the London Landmarks stamps official. As the same logo was used in both handstamps I wonder if any member knows if Stamp Publicity sponsored the October handstamp?

If anyone knows who signed it I would also be much appreciated.

Bill Norburn

Dear Members,

We are looking for someone to help promote the club & it's activities nationally by various means. This would be a voluntary position, and does not necessarily mean the applicant would have to become a member of the GBFDC committee.

Reasonable out of pocket expensive would be reimbursed, for expenses incurred whilst carrying out duties for GBFDC.

Any members interested, Please contact Richard Park 01403 241825 or email rjpark@btinternet.com

Dear Editor.....

We apologise to Richard Park for the omission of his letter in the April edition of First Day Coverage. We print it here with apologies.

In reply to Mr D Whalley's letter in the February 2015 newsletter. I am more than happy for a list of realisations to be published in the newsletter. However, producing a list takes a lot of my time, as does the unsold lots list! There was a realisation list produced for auction 23, by one of our members which was printed in the newsletter. I supplied the data, which is quick and easy to email, and he spent time formatting the data into a readable format, so members could understand it. This worked well, but the offer was not forthcoming for the following auction to produce another realisation list. If Mr Whalley's is happy to help by producing a realisation list from the data supplied by me, I would be happy for him to do so. Please get in touch - ripark@btinternet.com

Richard Park.

Dear Editor.....

I find the articles issued illustrating FDC, and the stories behind the covers very interesting. It is particularly nice to see some of the more unusual covers that collectors have found. The covers shown in the April issue cover a broad range of interests and stories which prompted me to write. Although some of the covers may be rare, I find that the subject and stamps bear no relevance and consequently little interest (to me).

For example the British Cattle issue shown with the Britannia celebration flight cancel appears to have no relevance and hence no attraction for me (apologies if I have missed any connection), whereas the article "Let's connect" showing relevant (but not obvious) links with the stamp issue of more fascination.

Also the Year of the Child covers article was particularly relevant and (for me) makes the covers appealing. If I cannot find a relevance between postmark and stamp, I tend to pay little interest in the cover. I realise this is a purely personal view and it is very fortunate that everyone does have a different point of view. This is perhaps what makes the appeal of the hobby so fascinating, with collectors having different interests, and one reason why so many different postmarks are produced. This is not to detract from the interest by others of any cover. Thank goodness for such variety as at the other extreme only having one postmark for any issue would be extremely boring.

Anne Tucker

Dear Editor.....

On a quiet night I spent a few hours on ebay, just to see what was on sale. It was then that I came across my great ebay find. I suppose you want to know what this great find is. Well, it's a 15/01/69 Ships cover (SG 778/83). The date on the ebay FDC is 15/01/68 with a Brighton FDI. According to the Booth Catalogue (31 Edition) only the 5d stamp is known with a pre-release date of 13/01/69.

I paid just £9.99, not a King's ransom, but this hobby is not down to the cash (or should not be), but down to the thrill of finding that special FDC. I hope you find your special FDC.

Dear Editor.....

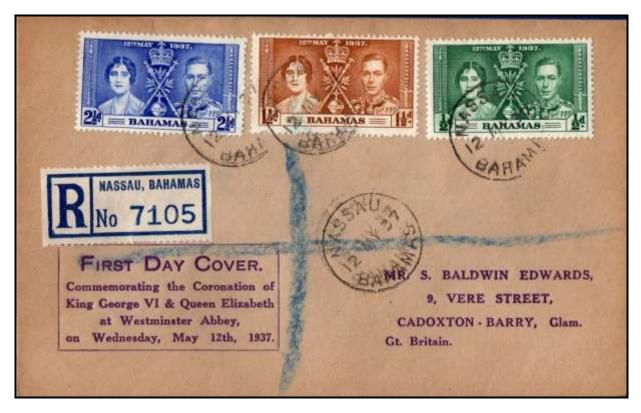

Kenneth asked an interesting question in the last newsletter of when is a cover deemed 'Illustrated' and gave several examples for all to ponder.

I've often believed that this area of our hobby would justify an interesting and detailed addendum to the better cover catalogues on offer - lots of photos collated from around the society and other interested parties and a brief history (as is given in Adrian Bradbury's FDC Catalogue)

For me I detail a cover as follows:

- Illustrated (with as much detail of the producer as is available)
- Typed/Printed Display Cover (Example shown below)
- Plain envelope with stuck on cachet
- · Hand illustrated I love this area
- Plain including commercial

So I for one am very keen on lots more information on covers and how they were produced.

Members Cover Sale

If you are an ordinary member and would like to sell your covers free of charge, then be sure to let the editor have your list in good time for publication.

All the covers listed are being sold by the member whose contact details appear at the beginning of their listing. We have laid out each set of listings as requested by the vendor so layouts will probably differ from person to person. If left to the editor to arrange then the listings will take on a more uniform appearance. Prices given are the cost of each cover and buyers must contact the seller direct to negotiate the sale. The seller may or may not add postage costs so it is up to the seller and buyer to come to their own arrangement. All that remains is to wish you good luck.

NEWSLETTERS BY E-MAIL

Many members are delighted with the PDF emailed version of the Newsletter. Not only does receiving it this way cut down on having to find storage for paper newsletters around the home, as all PDF Newsletters can be stored in a file of its own on your computer desktop, but it means you can read the newsletter at A4 size and in colour. You can print out all the pages at any time and at any size, or just one page if you so wish.

We do understand that for a variety of reasons many members do not want to receive their copies via email and would prefer to continue with a hard copy. This is not a problem and we would be happy to continue to send them out via the post.

From the point of view of our European and Overseas members emailing your newsletter would mean that you could be on a par with everyone else when it comes to the opportunities of purchasing items advertised in the newsletter, for instance in the Members Cover Sale.

Emailing the newsletter also saves your association money in paying for the newsletter printing and in postage costs. At the time of writing we are emailing the newsletter to 100 members and are keen to increase this number.

Would you be willing to receive your A4 colour newsletter via email instead of a black and white A5 hard copy in the mail? Yes, then please contact Terry Barnett with your email address.

If you already receive your newsletter by email then please don't forget to let us know if you change vour email address.

That's it from us for this edition. Please do look in your collections and see if you can put together an article for us. It will be most appreciated.

MCS How to submit your covers for sale

Please submit your list either by post or email (typed in a Word Doc.) Please make it LEGIBLE otherwise it will not be included. Send them by e-mail to sheridanfdcs@aol.com. We would prefer you NOT to list covers in a table as it makes formatting difficult. Any member can sell covers via the newsletter free of charge. If you require further details then please contact the Editor.

Please, if possible, only send the list of covers for the next newsletter rather than sending a large list or several lists. It is becoming a little confusing to work out which list belongs to whom and which edition it is for. Thank you

- 1) Please list them in a Microsoft Word Document (NOT in a table though). The more details you include then the less space there will be for your covers and less covers will be listed.
- 2) Either email your list or send it by post to Phil Sheridan. Hon. Editor, GBFDC Association, P.O. Box 99, Widnes, Cheshire WA8 0NN. E-mail: sheridanfdcs@aol.com When posting hand-written lists please make sure we can read them. It is probably best to print all lists.
- 3) Deadline for all items for inclusion in to any newsletter is ALWAYS 7th of the previous month to the newsletter publication. Please see top of page 2 and inside back page in EVERY newsletter

IMPORTANT ANNOUNCEMENT

Whist we are happy to receive lists of covers for the MCS written in long hand for members who do not have a computer (or access to email), we would ask those member who do have a computer and (or) access to email to take the trouble to type out their lists in a Word Doc. or directly in to an email and email it to us. This will save us a lot of work and time in transferring the list to computer and trying to decipher hand writing. If you submit a list in long hand and we know you have a computer and email then we are sorry but we can't guarantee to put your list in the newsletter. We hope you will understand. We are trying to make things a little easier for Phil & Dot due to their ongoing health problems.

Misguided, mishandled, but a gift for hard-up collectors!

Royal Mail first told dealers about the special Europhilex miniature in September 2014. We told them then that the print quantity was unrealistic and that their loyal customers would be upset. Royal Mail responded that the 'limited edition' of 7500 was to encourage collectors to attend the Exhibition. But they had no idea of how the sales would be organised.

Dealers were allowed to pre-order, but all had to be collected from the Exhibition. There was no distribution from Tallents House or before 13 May. Only on 28th April were dealers told of their allocation, with those who had taken the very expensive stands at the show allocated a greater proportion of their order than others.

General sales at the show were to be in two sessions, 10am and 3pm, but, anticipating queues blocking their stand between sessions, Royal Mail decided that all sales would be at 10am only. More would be sold on day 1 when visitors paid to get in. Sales were to be limited to 3 per person over the four days of the show. So collectors who had bought off-peak train tickets 3 months in advance arriving at London termini from 11 am, would already have missed at least the first hour of sales, and would have to take their chance that no packs would be on sale when they arrived.

I was not surprised to find a queue at the Royal Mail stand on Thursday, but even before that I had had reports that there was no formal control of sales. Only 3 sheets could be bought in a single transaction, but many people made repeated visits to the stand on day 1 and so were able to buy 15 - 20 sheets. With one dealer advertising well in advance that he would pay at least double the £4.95 cost at the exhibition, it was clear that some collectors would buy as many as they could so as to subsidise the ever-increasing cost of their collecting.

We estimated that 1500 were allocated to dealers and cover producers, with around 3000 on sale on day 1, and 1000 per day on the other three days.

This was a Royal Mail initiative – nothing to do with the event organisers – designed to encourage more people to attend the event. While attendance figures are yet to be revealed, there is no evidence to suggest that numbers matched the over 5,000-a-day of London 2010. And while some collectors in an unscientific online poll said that they wouldn't buy it even though they would be at the show, three times as many said they wouldn't be able to go but would have liked the pack.

So was this a success? For FDC producers, no because they couldn't get as many sheets as they needed for their standing order customers. For other UK dealers – none will have lost money, but those who managed to buy far more than Royal Mail indicated they would sell to them will have profited the most. What of the collectors? Well some will be hundreds of pounds better off because they beat the system and have quickly sold on eBay.

And for Royal Mail? Well they sold everything so they haven't lost money, but this misguided and mishandled policy has alienated their loyal customer-base of dealers and collectors alike, especially those outside the UK. The increasing number and increasing cost of stamp issues and the continued problems of 'errors' on Post and Go stamps are causing our customers to consider seriously whether their hard-earned cash would be better spent on older stamps and postal history. This will have only reinforced those views.

I hope that rumours of a similar exercise to boost attendance at Stampex are unfounded.

Festiniog Railway first day covers

By Selwyn Goodacre

I imagine we all like to have the occasional real rarity in our collection – to have a unique item is even more desirable, and particularly so if the fact has been confirmed in print. One way to satisfy the desire, I suggest, is to look into acquiring certain covers created by 'The Festiniog Company Railway Letter Service'.

It is worth investing in two catalogues for these issues: "The Festiniog Railway Company Railway Letter Service Volume 1 1969-1997" by Harold Creamer; Volume 2 1998-2009 by John Dobson & Robert Smallman.

The joy (!) of these covers is that within each issue there are a number of variants – all are detailed in these catalogues, and individual variants can vary in number from one only, to two, three, four or more. For the more popular covers, numbers are rather higher. One of the reasons for the great variety in the one issue, is the varying stations printed on the cover, the number and variety of the 'railway stamps', and the place of cancellation.

Happily for the specialist collector like myself, these years cover all the various issues.

I am interested in. In my own collection I have a number of Festiniog 'Year of the Child' covers – three of them are said to be one of 2 only (one of these is shown), one is one of 3 only, and three are said to be one of 4 only.

If I turn to the 'Story of Beatrix Potter Prestige Booklet' (10 August 1993), here I do have two which are said to be unique – one of these is shown. I am also interested in the Village Churches issue (21 June 1972), and again I have a number of covers – ranging from one of 4 to one of 15.

Indeed this FDC collecting business is of endless fascination.

Acknowledgement: I am most grateful to Brian Reeve Auctions who first alerted me to these covers, and who suggested my buying the two catalogues

175th Anniversary of the Penny Black limited edition First Day Cover

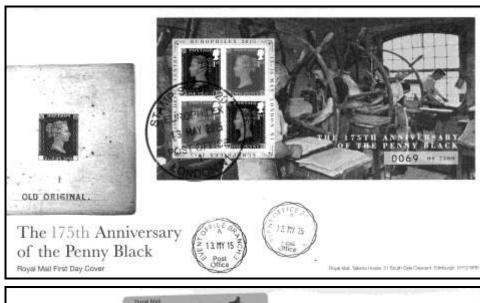

On 13 May 2015, the first day of Europhilex, I went to the stamp show with the intention of purchasing a number of the limited edition miniature sheets for myself and others.

As this was a limited edition of only 7,500 Royal Mail were restricting these to only three per customer. I therefore had to be content with these.

Realising the potential value of these very collectable items, I wondered whether to keep the mint miniature sheets or proceed with my original plan which was to do First Day Cover envelopes, and walk down the road to Islington Post Office and obtain an Islington CDS.

Whilst taking my time walking around the exhibition, I discovered the Post Office had a stand hidden away on the first floor, manned by a very helpful person who was prepared to do whatever I wanted. After discussion, I opted to send the covers by Special Delivery with the following:-

- the miniature sheet cancelled with the Post Office Europhilex postmark
- the Events Office Branch CDS on the envelope
- a Horizon label affixed to the reverse to make up the Special Delivery charge (this was a new version of the Horizon label issued that day).

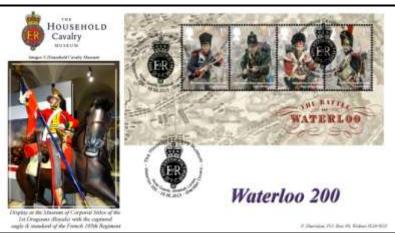

There will be very few of these unique covers around, and as the Post Office employee was so helpful, I did what I usually do, and brought him tea and cake.

ANNOUNCEMENT - We apologise for the delay in dispatching Penny Black issues for the 6th & the 13th May, but GBFDC work had to come first, so it has delayed me quite a lot with my own work. Due to various set backs, we are still working on our Gallipoli covers. As soon as we have those out of the way we will start to dispatch the 6th & 13th May issues together. Thank you for your patience.
